

The Wine List.

For some, this is the most exciting part about going out, for many, it's the most daunting.

For many years, our wine list has been really big. It's fluctuated between 300 and 400 wines, which is a lot of wine to flick through when all you want is a nice glass of wine. Much like wine that expresses itself differently when grown in different places, so too a wine list should be an expression of where it's from, who visits the restaurant and what they expect.

So, after about many years of having lots of wine, we now have around 150. Set out in the simplest form we can, set out to make reading it easy, and choosing something delicious even easier. Whilst we still have lots of wine in our cellar, what is on offer will change as wines come in and out of favour and are drunk by happy customers.

What won't change is our commitment to high quality, expressive wines, that suit not just our food, but also, the people that make Bottega the success that it is.

Salute!

Bigger, fuller and some orange ones too

Orange wines pay homage to the ancient winemaking practices of eastern Europe and northern Italy. Without the advent of modern technology grape skins and grape juice were often blended together. This causes the wine to turn orange or amber as it ferments. The movement towards traditional winemaking practices has popularised this style of wine in recent years. It's hard to describe them, but essentially, they are rich, full bodied, sometimes tannic wines, not too dissimilar to red wine. The Gravner is an excellent example of this style, whilst the Vinea Marson is an impressive new world interpretation.
